

Behavioral Agreement For Participation in Activities

- A. In order to maintain a safe, friendly and harmonious environment for all campers and staff, both the parent/legal guardian and student agree to the following eligibility requirements for the behavior of campers:
1. The camper will demonstrate respect for fellow campers and all program staff by speaking and behaving in a respectful manner;
  2. The camper will follow instructions given by camp staff members and adult leaders;
  3. The camper will neither threaten nor cause physical harm or act in an aggressive or belligerent way toward others. This includes but is not limited to, hitting, punching, kicking, biting, spitting, swearing, lying, or refusing to participate in camp activities;
  4. The camper will demonstrate respect for the Museum's buildings, grounds, artifacts and displays, as well as for any other location the camper may visit while attending camp;
  5. The camper will not litter, vandalize, steal, or destroy items that do not belong to the camper; and
  6. The camper agrees to follow all camp rules, including those that are not listed on this behavior agreement.
- B. The parent/legal guardian and student agree to abide by the disciplinary consequences stated below if the camper violates any of the above behavioral requirements:
1. If the camper violates the behavioral requirements stated above other than causing or threatening to cause physical harm, the camp staff may take the following actions:
    - First Infraction will result in a phone call to the parent or guardian. A senior staff member will explain to the parent/guardian what happened and why such behavior is not acceptable. The camper will be removed from the program for the remainder of the day. The parent or the guardian has the obligation to take reasonable measures to prevent the incident from happening again
    - Second Infraction may result in immediate expulsion from camp without refund.
  2. In the event the camper causes or threatens to cause physical harm to a staff member or other camper, s/he will be separated immediately from other campers for safety reasons. Any camper who has threatened or caused physical harm may be expelled from the program upon the first incident without refund.
